

shanastrange.net

Shana Strange

Bible Teacher, Musician & Author

“ It's providence, not coincidence.

About Shana

Life can be a roller coaster, can't it? Filled with ups and downs, uncertainties, and twisty turns we never saw coming. Through diving into spiritual truths and answering the call to abide with Jesus, Shana not only survived overwhelming challenges, but continues to walk out her calling daily and help others do the same. From being born with facial deformities that caused shame, to being signed as a Christian recording artist only to have her contract terminated, to the most ultimate trial of her twenty five year marriage ending in divorce, Shana knows the pain of rejection and disappointment.

She connected with Jesus through all of the pain and now her message centers around understanding the power of God's providence to help us overcome anything we face.

What others are saying

I found Shana after and booked her for our 3rd conference. She did not disappoint. She was thoughtful and God's light shines through her. She brought a beautiful message that was heartfelt and stirred the souls of our guest. She was also our musical guest, what a beautiful voice. Her original songs are amazing. She has her eyes fixed on Jesus and she wants to make sure everyone else does too. You will not be disappointed in booking her. - Sherrie Jackson, Cross Trails Cowboy Church

Signature Message - The Power of Providence

Through powerful storytelling, creative music and imparting Biblical truths, Shana will revive the hearts of her audience and teach them to trust in God's providence.

Listeners will be inspired to cultivate an intimate relationship with God in practical ways and learn to abide in His love no matter what life brings to overcome every challenge faced to fulfill the destiny God planned for them.

Booking Information

shana@shanastrange.net

903.646.4819